Rules & Allocation of Points

- Tack must conform to BD rules in all classes.
- Full dressage competition wear or light coloured breeches/jodhpurs and show jacket preferred but not essential. Hat up to current standards, suitable gloves and correct footwear essential.
- Maximum of two tests can be entered per combination. Tests must be from consecutive levels. If a combination wants to enter more than 2 classes the entry in the lowest level class must be HC. HC entries will be accepted subject to class availability only.
- Combinations entering the Intro class may not enter the Novice class in the same round. Once a combination has entered a Novice class they will not be allowed to enter an Intro class in a later round.
- Combinations entering the Prelim class may not enter the Elementary class in the same round. Once a combination has entered a Elementary class they will not be allowed to enter a Prelim class in a later round.
- Both Members and non-members are able to earn points.
- Rosettes to 6th in each class each round. Points awarded per class as follows.
1st - 10 points, 2nd - 9 points, 3rd - 8 points, 4th - 7 points, 5th - 6 points, 6th - 5 points.
2 points per round per section per combination to be awarded regardless of final position.
- Where a class receives a high number of entries the organisers reserve the right to split the class into two sections. Each section will be awarded rosettes to 6th however league points will only be awarded to the highest six scoring competitors in the entire class.
- Trophies to all class winners and overall section winners. Rosettes to class and overall section league champions and reserve champions.
- In the result of a tie in the finalised class league tables placings will be awarded for tied competitors in order of highest average score. If there is still a tie placings will then be awarded for tied competitors in order of highest average collective marks.
- In the result of a tie in the finalised overall league table all tied competitors will be awarded the relevant placing rosette.
- Trophies and League rosettes to be presented at our Annual Presentation Award Dinner on 23rd November.
- Competitors under 18 years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult
